LOCAL DIMENSION OF INVARIANT MEASURE FOR INTERVAL MAPS

YONG MOO CHUNG (HIROSHIMA UNIV, JAPAN)

ABSTRACT. We consider a dynamical system defined by a C^2 map of an interval. For any ergodic invariant probability measure the local dimension exists and it is constant almost every where. This value gives an estimate of the dimension spectra for the Birkhoff average of a continuous function on the interval.